CHIEF SECRETARIAT
1 OCT. 1896
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

To His Excellency the Right Honou-able Governor of Madras in council.

From Shaik Ahmed Police Constable No. 109. Rail-way orderly at Tanjore.

The poor petitioner humbly begs to bring the following few lines to your honours kind consideration and orders.

(1) Two stable domis at Chinnia-chet street Trichinopoly was presented to my Grand-father by the Navab of Madra for his meritorious services rendered as a Commandant under him. After his death they were in possession of my father, without any interruption whatever - who died 22 years back. At the time of my father's death, I was at Tanjore serving in the Police Department.

(2) Now the Municipality of Trichi-poly unlawfully took possession the two houses in that any [illegible] notice

Wherefore I beg your honour to be graciously pleased to consider the facts and to bestow upon me the two dimes so that I may live in them with my large family.

For which act of kindness and charity
I shall ever as in duty bound ever pray.
