Sir,

1. In reply to the Sanitary Commissioner of Madras, in his inspection notes on the Vellore Municipality published in G.O. dated 19th December 1894 No. 1987 M. Local and Municipal Council in reply promised to close the ground situated on the collecting surface of the Suriaquntah, and the Municipal Council in reply promised to close the grave yard as soon as another site near the Palar River had been obtained.

2. As soon as I took charge of my office I at once took steps to obtain a piece of land either by purchase or acquisition and now that I have at last succeeded in purchasing with the sanction of the Council a piece of land near the the Palar river for Rs 1150 for a burning and burial ground. I have the honor to request that Government will be pleased to accord its sanction, under section 240. (clause 1) of Act no. IV of 1884, (the Madras District Municipalities Act) to the issue of a notice prohibiting the burial of persons in the burial ground situated on the collecting surface of the Suriaguntah after a period of not less than two months to be named in the notice.

I have the honor to be
