2. The chairman should have submitted a letter explaining his proposals for the additional establishment. His omission in a similar case was pointed out in Government Order No. 1515 M. Miscellaneous dated 7th September 1896.

3. The delay in submission of this application which is dated 31st August 1896 was due to the same having had to be returned to the chairman for resubmission with proper docket as per recent orders of Government.
