Copy of note by the Hon. Mr. A.T. Arundel, I.C.S., on Judicial Current No. 4127, dated 24th September 1896.

I don't believe that Sec. 144, Criminal Procedure
Code, was intended by the Legis. to be used for petty village sanitation, but similar orders have already been issued and Hon. Member has passed a similar case.
But if this action is legitimate and if Magistrates do their duty, we should have hundreds of applications.

Copy of note by the Hon. Mr. Bliss, C.I.E., dated 25th September 1896.

No one has as yet raised any difficulty. I think myself, however, that it is a matter which is open to doubt.
When we revise the Local Boards' Act, we should, I think,
give the Local Boards powers in this and similar matters.
