it before the close of the year. On account of the pendency of appeals of 1895-96. there was a large amount of out standing arrears. There is a sum of nearly Rs 8,000, more to be collected now, than there was in 1894-95. The work is considered too much for the existing staff. The question, whether they should be entertained beyond 31st March 1897 will be considered at the Budget time. The object of employing these once temporarily more is to collect the whole demand before the close of the current official year.
