(Municipalities)

Sir,

I am directed to forward the accompanying telegram and memorial from the inhabitants of the town of Chingleput in which they pray for the cancellation of the orders of the Government of Madras declaring that town to be a Municipality. I am to request that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council, they may be returned to the memorialists with the intimation that any representation that they may wish to make on the subject should be submitted through the Local Government.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

Nathan

Offg. Under-Secy. to the Govt. of India.
