Order No. 2042 in mis d/1-12-96

The further Communication promised in para. 1 of the Chairman's letter will be awaited.

2. With reference to para. 2, it is observed that the expression "extent of business carried on" is far too vague. The rates of fees on bakehouses should vary according to the ~~case~~ ^{supra} and the degree of ~~aidance~~ ^{aidance} ~~cause~~.

SUBJECT.

Bake House. —

Stating that the difference between a first and second class — depends on the extent of business carried on in each.

- (1) Has any criterion ever been laid down? Does the distinction of class occur in any other city.
- (2) Mty.

(1) The draft follows No. 12534 of 27th July 1896 para (2).

(2) Please see 576 and 4th June 1896 870m of 44th June.

The Chairman, M.C. Bellary.

See that in a. 4 June the q. was asked (para item 12) What reply was received to what orders passed?

Please see for 1057m 17.7.50

Then ask to that the class is right!

dated 19.9.96 sanctioning the scale of fees proposed to be levied on licences for certain offensive and dangerous trades
under section 188 of the Act
and stating that rate of fees on living stables should be determined on that accommodation available and not on the number of carriages kept and asking to explain the difference between a first and a second class Bakehouse.

Referred to the Sub Com.

This is very vague. The rates should depend on the area occupied & the degree of
nuisance caused.
