Office of Sanitary Commissioner,

Madras, 25/10 1896.

I am Mr. Arnold
 I return the Resident's telegram with thanks.
 I am aware that Hyderabad by station was being watched. The difficulty I anticipate is that because plague may settle in the city without the fact being known.
 As far as my information
 goes, the statement now made as to Hyderabad

action being watched represented - all that is being done: even the war in the recommendation of the Health Officer.
Chadwick.

However, I will obtain information informally and, if necessary, again write to you. In the meantime, I have to thank you for taking action in the matter.

Yours faithfully
W. H. H.
