Sir,

Referring to G. O. No. 2093 L. Mis. dated 7th November 1896, I have the honor to forward herewith copy of resolution No. 200 dated 16th Novr 1896 of the District Board, and to state that while the District Board accepts the modified proposal of the Accountant General for the entertainment of an additional clerk on Rs 20 on the ground that one is essentially necessary, it considers that the pay of the Head Audit clerk should be raised to at least Rs 70 in view of his heavy responsibilities which are quite as great as in a first class District where the Chief clerk is paid Rs 75. The statements attached to the Treasury Deputy Collector's letter which formed the enclosure to this office No 1075 dated 15th September 1896, prove how heavy the work is, and the Board strongly recommends that the proposal may be sanctioned. A revised proposition statement is enclosed.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

President.
