From the notes in G.O. No. 1848 L dated 29th September 1887, it will be seen that though the intention of the framers of the Local Boards Act, V of 1884, was to legalize the levy of market fees at all times of the year, the wording of Section 57(v) cannot strictly be held to allow this. It is accordingly proposed to amend this section by substituting the words "use of markets, slaughter houses and cartstands constructed or maintained from Local Funds and fees for the temporary use of" for the words "temporary use of cart-stands and markets". ~~[illegible]~~ - Vide Sec. 22 of the draft bill to amend the Local Boards Act and the statement of objects and reasons in G.O. No. 1485 L dated 18th July 1889. In practice however, no objection has b fees [illegible] markets

I wd simply tell them that no objection has been hitherto taken to the levy of the fees at all times of the year & that this was the intention of the framers of the Act. Any doubt that may arise from the wording of the section it is proposed to remove when the Act is amended

SIR,

It is stated in section 57 (v) of Act No V of 1884, that Local Boards may levy fees for the temporary use of markets &c. For a long time, in the markets under this Taluq Board, fees have been collected only on one day, called the market day in the week; now proposals have been received from the officers in direct charge of the markets at Peddapur, Samalcota, & Pittapur, to collect fees on other days also, as people have been resorting to the market sheds, even on days other than the market days. It was held by me that a daily fee for the use of the market if open would be a temporary fee within the meaning of Sec 57 (V) of the act and might be collected. I said that such a fee, which is collected for the privilege of selling articles within the precincts of the market, when it is open ought not to be confounded, with the charging of a permanent rent, for the occupation of any godowns, that might be built within the precincts of the market & that the latter was objectionable and did not seem to be permitted by the Act. Some members of the Board are however of opinion that if a daily fee can be collected, it cannot be called a temporary fee & therefore requested me to make a reference to Government as to whether or not a daily fee for the use of the market may be collected. I have the honor therefore to request the favor of the opinion of Government on this point.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant.
