To,

The District Board, District Engineer.

With reference to his office Note dated 6th Mithun, Ref: on C. no 3399 of 95, the District Board District Engineer is informed that in G. O. dated 16th February 93 No. 340 L. Government has distinctly ruled that gratuities should not be recommended in the case of persons whose labor is purely manual or who have rendered a shorter period of service than 20 years. The person referred to is therefore not entitled to any gratuity. The Engineer's suggestions to retire the Deon and appoint the acting man permanently in his place is approved.

SECRET
CURRENT No. 2017

His Excellency the Governor of Madras.

The humble memorial of Sheikh moidin, late Hon in the L. F. Overseer's office, Calicut, Malabar most humbly sheweth,

That, with profound respect & humble submission, memorialist begs to state that in obedience to G. O. no 868 L. mis: dated 11th May 1896, he represented his grievances to the Board of Revenue, Madras, on the 8th ultimo, but to his great disappointment, the Board, in its Proceedings no 1631 Continues of 15th June 96 (Copy enclosed. B.) has informed memorialist that it has no jurisdiction in the matter.

That, memorialist respectfully begs to submit that he faithfully & diligently served the State for over 13 years in the D. P. W. and L. F. departments, and had given satisfaction to his Superiors; that in consideration of this, the District Board D. Engineer recommended memorialist for gratuity or Pension in his office Note dated 6th December 96 no 13899 but the President of the District Board in his office Note no 234 L. F. dated 9th January 96 (Copy enclosed) refused to grant memorialist either of his prayers.

That, in G. O. quoted above memorialist was directed to place the facts either before the Board of Revenue or the D. P. Boards and obtain its decision; that he therefore humbly begs to state that he petitioned to both the authorities but could not get justice.

Memorialist therefore most humbly & respectfully prays Your Excellency will be generously pleased to take a benign view of his deplorable circumstances & the fact of his having first served in the D. P. W. department, and to graciously pass a favourable & just order in the matter, & thus save him from falling a victim to starvation in his old days. I 13th July 96, which act of benevolence he shall ever thank. Sheikh moidin
