Enclosures.

Sir,

With reference to para 1 of G.O. No. 22, dated 22.12.1894, regarding the delay in the return of the records by the Deputy Secretary, Commission may be explained. I have the honor to inform that, as the case of this municipality, the delay was unavoidable, as many of the records necessary for the filling up of the form for Report, were filed in the custody of the Stationary Submagistrate, Vellore Town, in the prosecution of certain defendants against the provisions of the Municipal Act relating to compulsory vaccination, and the return of the records could not be obtained until the cases were disposed of, to enable them to appear to contest the report and then the records were returned.

With reference to para 2 (a) of the letter of
