To,

The Calicut Tahsildar

Petition of Kalluvalappil Kadungochan residing in Edakad amsam, Calicut Taluk.

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of order requiring me to appear in the Taluk Office this day in connection with the proposed acquisition by Government of the north western portion of Thayithottu paramba held by me and others in Varakal Desam of the said amsam, for the purpose of constructing a Cinerator required for the Military Department.

The above paramba was demised to me and others by Vadhiarvittil Padmanabhan Pillay, on a kanom of Rs. 50 on payment of renewal fee etc for a period of 12 years. A portion of this paramba has, by litigation, passed out of the possession of the Jenmi as well as myself and others.

Only a period of 3 years has elapsed since the demise was granted to me and others. From the Jenmam value due to the Jenmi, the proportionate renewal fee for the remaining 9 years, the kanom amount of Rs. 50 as well as the sum due to me by the Jenmi in

in respect of this paramba, have, therefore to be deducted and paid to me.

If the Kanam value be not sufficient to cover the amount due to me, the remaining portion of the paramba in my possession will be liable therefor.

I have no objection to the site being acquired by Government on the condition above set forth.

Dated 16th December '95

Sd/ Kadungochan

I am not now in a position to fix the exact amount due to me as the connected papers are in Court.
