Letter. No. 43 of 1895

To,

The Resident in Hyderabad.

Sir,

The District Board of Nalgiris lately undertook the construction of a road from Cotacamund to Anikorai and in carrying out the work cut through the highness the Nizam's property,

25 cents of the property at Cotacamund known as the

"Snowdon" house to the extent of 1/2 acre. From the accompanying copy of a letter No. 618(6) dated 29th November 1895, received from

Deposited a copy of the No. 3529 of and the sketch map with it to be forwarded with the letter. Done 11/11/95

from the President of the District Board, and the sketch submitted therewith, it will be seen that the land in question is <sup>at</sup> ~~near~~ the <sup>extreme end</sup> ~~boundary line~~ of the property of <sup>H.H.'s</sup> ~~His Highness~~ and not within sight of the house, <sup>out of</sup> ~~and~~ the District Board, while regretting that the land should have been taken up without obtaining the <sup>permission</sup> ~~permission~~ of <sup>which was due to its ignorance</sup> ~~His Highness~~ of whose <sup>of the fact that the land belonged to His Highness</sup> ~~ownership it was unaware~~, hopes that His Highness will be pleased <sup>to</sup> ~~to~~ make a free grant of it in view of the ~~public~~ purpose for which it is to be ~~used~~ <sup>agreed</sup>.

2. I am therefore directed to request that you will be good enough to address His Highness the Nizam on the subject and communicate the result to me at an early date.

To,

The Chief Secretary to Government
Local & Municipal Dept.
Nilgiris,

Sir,

With reference to para 3 of G.O. dated 8th November 1895, No. 2146 L. Mis: I have the honour to state that the extent of His Highness the Nizam's property actually encroached upon by the new Anikorai road trace is 25 cents a sketch delineating which is herewith submitted

2. Snowden house, the property of H. H. the Nizam, stands on a saddle, and down below it, on the north, i.e. on the side remote from Ootacamund, is situated a deep ravine, down which for a short distance, the Snowden house property runs. At the northern extremity of this property, is a bridle-path, which belongs to the District Board, and which runs straight down one side of the ravine and up the other. The new Anikorai trace was run over on a contour line, round the ravine, instead of straight across it, and this led the District Board into the Snowdon House property. The Ag. President, Mr. Sim, was of course, unaware of this, until the encroachment had been, in part committed, but General Morgan who sold the property to H. H. the Nizam, and has since occupied a house on the borders of his former property, which the new road would serve, was, of course, well aware of the ownership of the Nizam.

3. The land is not within sight of the house, but down in the ravine, near the boundary line of H. H. the Nizam's property.

4. The map forwarded to Col. MacKenzie, the Acting Resident at Hyderabad, by the Acting President, Mr. Sim, shows the position taken up. The enclosed sketch will perhaps suffice to the same end.
