His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor of Madras.
 May it please your Excellency, I respectfully beg to state that a petition from the Town Magistrate and other leading notables of this town was submitted in December last to the Private Secretary requesting him to lay it before your Excellency for favorable consideration and orders, but no order appears to have been yet issued on the subject.
 It is therefore presumed that the cases containing the said petition might have miscarried.
 I therefore humbly beg to submit herewith a copy of the same for your Lordships' favorable consideration and orders.

Thos Brennan

your Lordships humble and obedient servant.

Local & Municipal

The Excellency The Right Honorable The Governor of Madras
St. George

The humble petition of the Town Khazgi and other leading Mohommadians of the town of Trichinopoly.

Respectfully sheweth,

- 1— That your petitioners beg respectfully to state that the number of the Mohommadan population in this town is larger than in any other towns in this Presidency, and that there has been a long standing bitter animosity between the Mussulmans and the Hindus who are watching for every opportunity to cause annoyance to & wound the religious feelings of the former.
- 2— That your petitioners therefore submit a proposal to Government in 1885, when the direct connection of the Collector with the Municipal affairs had ceased owing to the introduction of the self-government into this municipality, that, in consideration of the proportion of the Mohommadan population of this municipality (12,000 or number) there should be 4 Mohommadan Councilors (2 by nomination and 2 by election) in the municipal council.
