19 — Read the file of correspondence beginning with this office No 1450 dated 8-3-94 and ending with Villupuram Tahsildar's letter dated 15-4-95 about the establishment of a dispensary and Union at Valavanur.

The necessity for opening a dispensary at Valavanur is not made out considering its situation on the railway line & also its close proximity to the Villupuram Station containing a good hospital which is abundantly sufficient to meet all requirements of the surrounding villages.

The question of making Valavanur a Union shall be only considered at the next Budget.

Extracts from Villupuram Tahsildar's Report on the Question of forming a Union at Valavanur.

"Considering the ever growing population and importance of the place being the centre of the ground nut trade in the Taluk and also the fact that a sanitary establishment has for a long time been employed there, the village of Valavanur with its suburb of Kumarakuppam may be constituted a minor Union – Of course the people, as elsewhere, through fear of introduction of house-tax, are averse to the measure".

"Valavanur is rapidly growing into importance by being a centre of the ground nut trade, and its population is increasing on so much so that the town almost overflows, and adoption of special measures for the protection of health of the traded (sic) population cannot safely be postponed – Its formation into a Union would seem imperative".

Valavanur has always been regarded as an important & progressive village, and for several years the Taluk Board has maintained there a Conservancy staff consisting of a sanitary Maistry and 8 sweepers at an annual outlay of Rs 504 from general revenues. The population has so considerably increased, & the importance of the village as the centre of a flourishing trade in groundnut is annually attracting new settlers, that some special sanitary measures other than the maintenance of a Conservancy staff, must be undertaken as a matter of public policy, and there is no reason why this village should not be made to contribute in part towards the cost, by the imposition of house tax. The receipts from house-tax are estimated at Rs 1000. The present scavenging estt. costs Rs 504. Union office estt. will cost not more than Rs 180 (one clerk on Rs10 & one peon at Rs5) at the utmost. READ—the following paper :—

From MUHAMMAD RAZA KHAN, Esq., President, Taluk Board, Tindivanam, to the Collector and President, District Board, South Arcot, dated 6th February 1896, Ref. on Cur. Regr. No. 50-T.B.

In returning herewith petition to Government from the inhabitants of Valavanur, with your endorsement thereon, I have the honour to inform you that the formation of a union at Valavanur was suggested by the late District Medical and Sanitary Officer, and was strongly supported by the Tahsildar of Villupuram, extracts from whose reports are herewith submitted with copies of the taluk board's resolutions, No. 19, dated 20th April 1895, and No. 12, dated 14th November 1895, for your information.

2. The taluk board after mature deliberation approved of the measure, and provision has been made accordingly in the budget for 1896–97.

3. Valavanur has always been regarded as an important and progressive village, and for several years the taluk board has maintained there a conservancy staff consisting of a sanitary maistry and eight sweepers at an annual outlay of Rs. 504 from general revenues. The population has so considerably increased, and the importance of the village as the centre of a flourishing trade in ground-nuts is annually attracting new settlers, that some special sanitary measures other than the maintenance of a conservancy staff must be undertaken as a matter of public policy; and there is no reason why this village should not be made to contribute towards the cost by the imposition of house-tax. The population is 10,079, and the realization from house-tax at full rates will probably amount to Rs. 1,000.

ENCLOSURE.

EXTRACT from the Proceedings of the Taluk Board, Tindivanam, passed at a meeting held at Tindivanam on the 14th November 1895.
