Subject - Read endorsement No. 1561 dated 28th October 1895 from the D.B.
President, District Board, Nellore, communicating G.O. No. 17096 dated 16th September 1895 requesting the Board to give their views as to the desirability of raising the rates of house-tax in the unions.

Resolution - The Taluk Board consider that the rate of house-tax in the unions of Kaudukur, Kaugiri, and Addanki should be raised from next year from $\frac{1}{2}$ the maximum rates to $\frac{3}{4}$ the maximum rates; these have not been self supporting. In the case of Kottapalam Union no change is considered necessary as the union is self supporting.

Subject. Read District Board President's No. $\frac{1561}{D.B.}$ dated 12th October 1895 requesting that the remarks of Government in clause 3 para 3 of the G.O. No. $\frac{1702}{L}$ dated 16th September 1895 about the raising of house-tax should be placed before the Board and their views communicated.

Resolution. The Board considers that full rates should only be introduced in Venkatagiri at present. There are many rich house holders in that Union and an increase of Revenue is urgently needed for sanitary and other improvements. The District Board is requested to reconsider its resolution disapproving of the proposal to introduce full rates at Venkatagiri.
