Sir,

The Moktassars of the Anantheshwar Temple having moved the District Munsif Udipi, notices have been served on me that Executions will be taken out in the several suits filed by them against the Udipi Taluk Board. As reported in my letter II Ref: on Current N^o 570 of 95, a second appeal has been preferred by the Udipi Taluk Board to the High Court of Judicature at Madras. But to avoid the expenses of moving the High Court to stay the executions pending the disposal of the second appeal the Taluk Board prefers to pay the amount and should the appeal be decided in its favour obtain a refund. The sum total amounts to Rs 1066.

2. I have the honor to submit the copy of the resolution of the Taluk Board and Solicit sanction of Government with reference to paragraph 2 of G.O. N^o 3294 of 95. Funds will be provided by a transfer subject to the approval of the District Board South Canara.

I have the honor to be
Sir
