SIR,

Referring to G.O. no 222 dated 12th February 1895, I have the honor to enquire whether it is the intention of Government that no cheque should be issued in any case for payments of less than Rs 10. If it be so, much inconvenience will be felt in making small payments, such as income tax recovered from the Municipal employees or other small contributions to Government. I doubt whether payments for these can be met from the Office permanent advance.

I herewith enclose for the information of Govt, Copies of my letter no 1047 dated 13th Dec 95 to the Treasury Deputy Collector and his reply on the subject.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

T. A. Alagapillai

Sir,
In acknowledging receipt of your no 1047 dated the 18th Decem^r 95, I have the honor to point out that the Art. 272 of the Civil Account Code and G.O. no 222-M referred to by you make no distinction as to whom the payments are to be made and I do not agree with you in thinking that issue of Cheques for Sundry payments is not objectionable. I have the honor, therefore to request that you will be good enough not to issue in any case Cheques for sums less than Rs 10 in future.

order quoted above, as I understand it, directs municipalities not to issue Cheques for sums below Rs. 10 payable to parties. Sums required for sundry payments have therefore to be drawn from the Treasury for being disbursed to the persons concerned in cash.

I am of opinion, that in the case in question neither the Chairman who issued the Cheque nor the Tahsildar who ordered payment has in any way violated the rules.

With reference to your memo of the 12th instant requesting the Tahsildar of Mayawaram why he made payment of the Cheque No 187 have the honor to inform you that the Accountant General C, in his letter No 628 dated 29th January 1895, requested the Government to prohibit Municipalities from making payments in its order dated 12th February 1895
