SIR,

With reference to your official memorandum No 345 dated 17th March, 1896, I have the honor to supply the omission pointed out in clause 7 thereof not "8" as quoted therein.

2. There are in this Municipality one Hospital and a Dispensary. There are three Hospital Assistants attached to the former and one to the latter. Free quarters are provided for one of the above mentioned Subordinates, namely, the Senior Hospital Assistant who is in charge of the Municipal Hospital. No accommodation is available for the others, nor is the Municipality likely to be in a favorable financial condition to spare funds to erect them in the coming year, as there are several other urgent needs. The Hospital Assistant in Charge of the Out-patient Dispensary is however paid a house rent of Rs 5, as he has secured a house within the prescribed limit of 200 yards.

Have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient,
