Statement of Panduranga Shetti, son of Anantha Shetti, residing at Bolar, Mangalore Thota village, taken down by the Revenue Inspector of Mangalore Division on 22nd December 1895.

I have heard Taluk Takid No $\frac{9073}{95}$ with enclosures read over to me. I have also seen the sketch forming its enclosure. Plot No 1 on the said sketch, coloured red, forms part of the garden land, Muli Warg No 79 of Mangalore Thota village, enjoyed by me and standing registered in my name; and I pay its assessment. There was no tree, building or another well on it. That land has recently been added by the Municipality to the road. That land adjoins plot No 4 on the sketch already given up by me on receipt of compensation of Rs 469 and odd, from Govt and lies to the east of it. The said plot No 1 is held by me on Muli right and it forms portion of the land enjoyed by me by right of purchase. There are no claimants to the land except myself. The Municipality has fixed Rs 50 for this plot in the proportion of the amount paid for plot No 4. I have agreed with the Municipality to part with the land for a sum not less than Rs 50. Orders may therefore
