SIR,

With reference to Government Order no: 397d. mis: dated the 28th February 1896 requesting to be informed when the revision of the Local Fund Code will be completed, I have the honor to state that the Inspector of Local Funds Accounts Mr. Ditchard will return from Privilege leave about this time next month, and will leave this Presidency on transfer in June. It is, I think, advisable to take advantage of this interval and his experience. I propose therefore to relieve him of his other duties so as to admit of his devoting himself to the revision of these rules. It is, however, not desirable that the Inspection work should suffer thereby. I therefore request that I may be permitted to employ an additional Assistant Inspector during that period on Rs. 125 per mensem with a Local allowance of Rs. 20. By rearrangement of the work of the Office the extra cost to the State of this arrangement will not exceed Rs. 115 for the whole period.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

J. Harrison
