Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that the Inspecting Officers having very often remarked of the inefficiency of the staff of the A. V. School of this Municipality working under Salary Recall System and as proposed by the Educational Department the Council made provision in the current year's budget for the employment of an Headmaster on a Salary of Rupees 10 a month, but the Government

Government in para 4 (3) of G.O. dated 20th March last, c/o 50966, reviewing the Budget, had declined to sanction with the remarks that "the alteration in the Educational Establishments which have not been clearly specified in the Chairman's letter, cannot be sanctioned until the necessity for them is fully explained."

The 1st Assistant teacher mentioned in the budget, continued to be the Headmaster and the Inspecting Schoolmaster of this Municipality was made to teach the highest class in the school for 2 hours without detriment to his own work every day until an efficient master is appointed to the school.

To the Assistant Inspector of Schools 6th Division had, during his examination of this school for grant held on the 3rd September last, remarked in the Supervision book that the Headmaster should be replaced by a better man and the Inspecting Schoolmaster should be made made to do his legitimate work and as the same officer had pointed out the insufficiency of the teacher, viz 3 for 5 classes in his endorsement c/o $\frac{2624}{15.5.95}$ on the Sub Assistant's letter c/o $\frac{1498}{11.5.95}$, the Council at its meeting held on the 26th ultimo resolved to appoint an additional teacher to the school who will be the Headmaster.

Under the above circumstances, I solicit the sanction of Government for the entertainment of an Headmaster on the salary of Rupees 10 a month from the 1st proximo. The additional expenditure for 4 months in the current year may be met from the General Savings under Grant II.

This application is made specially now, as a great portion of the school year would elapse, if I should wait for sanction in the ensuing budget. A proposition statement for the revision

Revision of the Establishment and a copy of Resolution of the Council are herewith Submitted to Government for information.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
