The Civil Apothecary and the Hospital Assistant attached to the municipal Hospital attend to the duties at the Police Hospital, and the Civil Apothecary is paid only one-eighth of his salary, i.e. Rs 18-12-0 per mensem from the Provincial funds. I need scarcely mention that the Contribution paid from Provincial funds is much lower than the salary of a 3rd Class Hospital Assistant who will in addition have to be paid a charge allowance of Rs 10 and a house rent of Rs 4 or 5 per mensem. The Civil Apothecary has further to examine all dead bodies sent by the Police and the Magistrates and to grant post mortem Certificates. He has also to absent from the Station frequently to give evidence before the Magistrates and the Sessions Judge, South Malabar. I consider that, for the various responsible work done by the medical Subordinates for the Police and the
