of Malabar Tuticerry

Sir

With reference to para 3(1) of L. O. dated 22nd October 1895, No. 1706 of 1895, I have the honor to state that the Council in adjudging appeals against the Chairman's assessment, on the representation made by the parties in some instances was of opinion that the class under which the parties were assessed was higher than it ought to be.

In certain other cases in which persons were taxed as hotel keepers and pawnbrokers the Council was of opinion that they did not exercise these trades and hence remitted the tax.

There were also instances in which the Council being satisfied of the poverty of some of the parties remitted the tax under Section 51 of the Act.

These among other reasons explain the fact of the Council having granted remission permission to the extent permitted by Government.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Wm. Chamberlain
Mr. Chairman

With reference to para 3(1) of G.O. dated 22nd October 1895 2. 1706 m. I have the honor to state that, as experience has shown that the collection of scavenging fees in advance though very desirable is impracticable in many instances. For though the bills are prepared and issued in advance yet a large number of persons on whom they are served put off making the payment for various reasons one of which invariably urged being that there is no justification in making a demand for payment in advance when the service is not rendered or in anticipation of such service being rendered.
It is also unfortunately found that there is no provision for enforcing payment in advance. The only course left being to stop the service and prosecute the parties for nuisance which though resorted to in some instances cannot be universally adopted lest the sanitation of the Municipality should suffer thereby.
Hence, as a natural consequence, some of the bills remain unpaid and fall into arrears.

I have the honor to be
Your most obedient servant.

Sir

With reference to clause 5 of para 4 of G. O. 1706 L. dated 22nd October 1895 calling for a report as regards the necessity for granting an allowance of Rs 20 to the Sanitary Inspector in addition to his pay while on under training in Madras, I have the honor to state that the Council granted the allowance in view of the circumstances set forth by the Inspector with respect to the costly living in Madras and to the necessity of his maintaining his family here, circumstances which should necessarily entail a considerable additional expenditure on him.
Having in view these circumstances and the fact of the unremitting zeal and earnestness that the Inspector has always shown in his work, the Council thought that to refuse the allowance would amount to an act of injustice, besides driving that officer to very greater pecuniary straits. The omission to obtain the sanction of Government which was due to an oversight is very much regretted, and it is requested that that sanction may now be accorded to the grant of the said allowance.
