Sir,
With reference to the resolution of the Municipal Council Vellore dated the 16th September declining to pass my travelling allowance bill for Rs 48 on the ground that my appointment order distinctly stated that no travelling allowance would be paid me, I have the honor to respectfully invite the attention of the Council to the same order and to request that the distinct offer therein made of Rs (5) five as house rent be given effect to. This offer, I would point out, was also made in the advertisement calling for applicants & it was one of the reasons which induced me to throw up a more lucrative appointment at Mangalore. I understand that the Council's refusal to grant me the house rent is due to an order of Government declining to sanction the same but I would respectfully point out that no mention

mention was made to me of the grant being conditional on such sanction.

I was promised Rs 50 plus 5 per mensem and if the additional Rs 5 is not permissible in the shape of house rent, I would ask that it be granted me in the shape of a general allowance or that my salary be raised to Rs 55 per mensem.

Trusting that the Council will see fit to comply with this reasonable request of mine

I remain Sir
Yours obediently

2. Read letter from Miss Intormin dated 9th December 1895 requesting that as the Council offered her Rupees five as house-rent in its order of appointment, as also in its advertisement, that sum be granted her as an allowance in lieu of the house-rent objected to by Government, as the offer made to her was not Conditional on Government Sanction.

Reverend Chamberlain proposes and Dr Adams supports that the application of Miss Intormin for the special allowance of Rupees five per mensem be recommended for the favorable consideration of Government, with the remark that as the lady apothecary was distinctly informed before accepting the appointment that that she would be paid house rent of rupees five she may be franted the same, and if government is not pleased to do so they may frant her rupees five per mensem as charge allowance.

Lost by a majority. On a reconsideration the Council carry the proposal by a majority

Sir,

I have the honor to submit the enclosed copies of a resolution of the Municipal Committee, dated 14th December 1895, as also of a petition from Miss C. Trutina, the Lady Apothecary attached to the Gosha and Caste Dispensary, Vellore, for the favorable consideration of Government.

2. When it was decided to entertain a Lady Apothecary, an advertisement was published in the Fort St. George Gazette inviting candidates for the post, on a salary of Rs 50 plus Rs 5 as house-rent.

Miss Trutina, when applying for the post, wished to know whether in the event of her services being entertained her travelling allowance would be paid by the Council.

No

No reply was sent to this communication, but when she was selected her order of appointment stated that she would only be paid her salary of Rs 50 and house-rent Rs 5, but that no travelling allowance will be paid. She accepted these terms, but soon after her appointment she asked the Council to reconsider the question of travelling allowance and submitted a bill for Rs 48, which she alleged to be about one-third of her actual travelling expenses; the council declined to consider her application on the ground that she was distinctly told in her order of appointment that no travelling allowance would be paid her. In the meanwhile and after her appointment, Government in its Proceedings No. 1260 dated 3rd August 1895 declined to sanction the house-rent, and Miss Irwin was informed of the Government order.

She now writes to say that as her order of appointment and the advertisement offered house-rent of Rs 5 in distinct terms, and was not contingent on Government sanction, and as she on these terms was led to give up a ^{more} lucrative appointment, the Council should give it to her, if not as rent, at least as an allowance - hence the resolution.

The orders of Government are respectfully solicited.

Your most obedient servant
