The Government does not consider that a notification under Act I of 1894, can have retrospective effect so as to validate the irregular procedure of acquiring the lands before any such notification issued. Nor would it be accurate to insert in this notification the names of the original owners of the lands, who has already parted with ^{his} ~~their~~ rights, as being still in possession of such lands. The proposed notification cannot therefore be published, and the municipal Council must be satisfied with such title as it has already acquired.
