MUNICIPAL OFFICE, RAJAHMUNDRY

No 442 DATED. 28th April 1892.

From

M. J. Jala Durgaprasadurayo de Saru
The Chairman, Municipal Council,

Rajahmundry.

To

The Chief Secretary to Government

Local & Municipal Department

MADRAS.

Through the Sub-Collector Godavery.

Sir,

With reference to para 4 (4) of G.O. No. 513 dated 23.3.96. regarding the Rajahmundry Municipal Budget for 1896-97, I have the honor to state that the people of this town, subsequent to the Budget meeting, protested against the removal of the First class Hospital Assistant from this place. The District Surgeon was also unwilling that the First class Hospital Assistant should be removed, having only asked for the entertainment of an additional Third class Hospital Assistant. The Council therefore, on further consideration, have thought it most undesirable that an Hospital Assistant of greater experience should be removed for the entertainment of less experienced Hospital Assistants.

The majority of the people whose means are limited cannot afford to call in the aid of District and Assistant Surgeons even if their services be always available as they cannot meet the higher charges of these officials. Though it is convenient to have two Hospital Assistants, still it is more desirable and beneficial in the interests of the people to have a First Class Hospital Assistant though one, and the Council therefore resolved on 13-4-1896. (Copy of resolution enclosed)
"that a First class Hospital Assistant be retained as before and that it would consider whether it cannot arrange next year to entertain a Third class Hospital Assistant in addition to the First class Hospital Assistant.

I therefore request you will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government for the retention of the 1st Class Hospital Assistant as before. By retaining the 1st Class Hospital Assistant, the Council does not undergo any additional expenditure, as the pay of the 1st Class Hospital Assistant is Rs 55 a month while that of one 2nd and one 3rd class Hospital Assistants is Rs 60 (35 & 25).

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.

Arjun Singh
Chairman.
