As soon as his present term of office expires, he should not be recommended for reappointment.

2. The Taluk Board Head Clerk who is apparently a friend of the said Seshamraja Iyer was, almost certainly, aware of the disqualifications. But he failed to bring them to the notice of the Taluk Board President who renominated him to the Seat of the Taluk Board. It is not impossible that the Taluk Board Head Clerk was privy to the disappearance of the papers referred to by the petitioner as missing. The President of the Taluk Board is requested to watch his conduct carefully in future.

3. The petitioner will be informed that his petition received attention and that, as the inquiry held showed that his papers were lost in transit from the Taluk
