CURRENT No. 3754

Read the following paper—

From the Government of India Finance and Commerce Department dated 13th December 1895 No 5766 S.R.

With reference to the last paragraph of the appendix to the Resolution in this Department No 528 dated the 30th January 1895 I am directed to enquire whether there are any out-standing debentures of corporate bodies which will not be covered by the legislation therein proposed, such for instance, as debentures on which the full amount of stamp duty has been paid without composition. If, as is proposed, the law should be amended, it will be necessary to provide for such debentures separately and I am to request that details as to their nature, number and amount may be furnished.

Order thereon No 5174 dated 21st December 1895.

Sir,

With reference to Government memorandum dated 24th April 1896. No. 453, I have the honour to state that full stamp duty on debenture bonds, as required in Proceedings of the Government of India, No. 3646 dated 13th November 1880 communicated in G.O. No. 2278 dated 7th December 1880 has not been paid. G.O. No. 2278 does not appear to have been received and filed in this office either in the year 1880 or 1881.
 I beg further to mention that one Anna receipt stamps were affixed to the debenture bonds as it was considered that Stamp duty should be paid as in the case of cheques, promissory notes or bills of exchange. In conclusion, I beg to mention that Stamp duty as required in the Proceedings of the Government of India will now be paid if it is so ordered by Government.
