 hope by this arrangement to procure the services of a competent professional man of good experience in Public Works who has also experience in the laws of health & Sanitation & who will be expected to do justice to his work by constantly moving on horse back and expending better outdoor work systematically from his subordinates than the present ill paid supervising staff whose capabilities and efficiency of supervision are open to question for several reasons.

I have the honor therefore

Order No. 597
The municipal council's proposal to appoint a pensioned Public Works Department officer to supervise both the public works and the sanitation of the town and to increase the salary of the Conservancy Inspector does not commend itself to Government. The council's attention will again be drawn to the desirability of appointing only men properly trained in sanitation and hygiene, as Sanitary Inspectors. ~~It is not competent~~ Public Works Officers, ~~is also necessary~~ the appointment of a duly qualified and experienced man ~~can~~ be ~~secured~~ for a slightly higher salary than ~~which~~ is paid to the present incumbent.
