Burning grounds:- This committee is of opinion that too many of these have hitherto existed and their localities have not been sufficiently clearly indicated. We propose that they shall be henceforth only four in number and located as follows:-

1. The ground on the East of River-bund lately acquired from the Vixianagram Sametanam.
2. The ground lying between Lakshmi-dewipeta and Vixiaramarajupeta as shown in the sketch annexed hereto and marked A. This ground will be entered from lehodavaram road at the west end and from Pedda Veedhi at the East end.
3. The Strip of ground lying along South of the irrigation channel to the South of Santhabayalu in Gavarapalem and extending from the Gorja leading to Paravada from the west and to a point in line with Ramada's well on the East as shown in the annexed plan marked B. It also will have an entrance at each end.
4. The Mahammadan Burial ground now in use on the South side of Cart-stand

It is proposed that burning and burying be made illegal anywhere in the Municipi-pality except in the four places named above and that these be indicated by hunds or walls erected around them.

Sir,

I have the honor to request that you will under Section 240 (1) of the District Municipalities Act of 1884, send to me the necessary sanction for closing all burning and burial grounds in this town except those four mentioned in the accompanying report of Special Committee to this Council and the Council's resolution thereon (copy of which is also enclosed).

As there has been very much difficulty experienced during the past months in coming to a settlement of this important matter I request that sanction may be accorded as early as possible, when the necessary two months notice in District Gazette and by beat of tomtom will be given. I may add that since this town has been a Municipality no definite arrangements as to burial and burning grounds have hitherto been made. Various vacant spaces having been used indiscriminately for these and other public purposes.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servt.
