3. Read again resolution of the Council no 2 dated 12th April 1897, that the Council cannot do anything without professional help to supply filtered water to the town's people.

The Council finds that there is much Scarcity of water in the town. The Sanitary Engineer has not yet been pleased to depute an officer to show the Council how the supply can be practically practically effected. The Government will be requested to issue early orders to the Sanitary Engineer to depute some officer and arrange for the supply of water. The Council is prepared to undergo the cost. —
