Note.

I need hardly bring to the notice of the Council that on account of famine, the low paid servants of the Municipality have been put to much hardship and suffering and that it is the duty of the Council to alleviate their suffering as far as it lies in its power. The Government were pleased to pass an order no. 375 Revenue dated 4th March 1897 a copy of which is herewith circulated, sanctioning famine batta to certain classes of Government servants but I am afraid the financial position of the Council does not admit of its sanctioning famine batta to its servants entirely on the lines of the Government order. I therefore suggest that an allowance of one rupee per month may be given to those whose pay is Rs 4 or less than that, twelve annas to those who are drawing above Rupees four and less than eight or Rupees 8, and half a rupee to those whose pay is above Rupees 8 and less than Rupees 15 or Rupees 15.

The whole number of municipal servants that are entitled to famine batta is 154 which may be divided into 3 classes as mentioned

80 5732

mentioned above.

The number of servants that belong to the first class is: that are drawing monthly Rupees 4 or less than that is 111 and the numbers of those that come under the second and third classes are respectively 24 and 19. The extra charge that should therefore be incurred by the Council on account of famine batta will be Rupees 111 for the first class servants; Rupees 18 for the second class servants and Rupees 9-8-0 for the third class servants making a total of Rupees 138-8-0 or Rupees 140 per month in round numbers.

I would also suggest that this concession may be sanctioned with retrospective effect from 4th March 1897 from which date the Government have sanctioned famine batta to their servants.

I may add that the present unfavourable season may not last longer (God willing) than two months more i.e. till the end of June next the latest. At all events this concession will have to be given for for four months and the extra charges will be Rupees 560.

for four months and the extra charges the number of servants (not being) to the will be Rupees 800.
 (2) Remuneration
 for the last four months that is 111 and the amount of this that will be under the second and third classes are respectively 24 and 111. It is therefore that should therefore be incurred by the Council on account of famine batta will be Rupees 111 for the first class servants, Rupees 24 for the second class servants and Rupees 111 for the for the third class servants making a total of Rupees 246. 0. 0 or Rupees 246.
 for month in which numbers.
 would also suggest that this concession may be sanctioned with retrospective effect from 4th March 1897 from which date the Government have sanctioned famine batta to their servants.
 It is added that the present unfavourable season may not last longer (admitting) four months and the extra charges of 111 will be given for the four months and the extra charges
 will be Rupees 800.
