No 5390

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Under date the 15th June 1897-

~~Read the following~~

His Excellency the Governor in Council resolves to make a grant from Provincial Funds of Rs.500 to the President of the Madras Municipality for illuminating public buildings in the town of Madras in commemoration of Her Majesty's Diamond Jubilee. The summit of St. Thomas' Mount is suggested as a suitable place for a bonfire in regard to which the Military authorities might be consulted by Colonel Moore.

2. A sum of Rs.250 will also be granted to the Chairman of the Municipal Council, Ootacamund, as a grant-in-aid of the bonfires which, it is understood, the Municipal Council intend to place on the summits of the hills surrounding the station.

3. Orders will issue accordingly in the Financial Department. Meanwhile the requisite arrangements can be made by the officers concerned.
