Your

Sir,

I have the honour to state that seeing that there will be a large decrease in the receipts under Taxes on Auto, Professions, Trades and Callings by the adoption of the Schedule A amendment to the Madras Sixty-third Municipalities
(Act) Amendment Act
III of 1897, I thought that, in assessing the Taxes on buildings, it would be advisable to adopt the maximum rate of $8\frac{1}{2}$ per centum which is only 1 per cent over the rate of Rupees $7\frac{1}{2}$ at which the tax has been levied in this municipality for some years past. On laying the matter before the council at a meeting held on the 29th May 1897, it has been resolved by a majority that the tax may be levied at the rate of 8 per centum and the annual value of the buildings. I beg to submit a copy of the resolution and to solicit sanction for levying the tax at 8 per centum from the current official year.

I have the honour to be
Sir

Your most obedient servant

Read Subsection (2) Section 63 of Act
IV of 1884 as amended by Act III of 1897

The Chairman proposes that the maximum rate of $8\frac{1}{2}$ per centum may be adopted for taxes and buildings. A majority of 7 Councillors are of opinion that 8 per cent may be adopted; and of the Councillors is not in favour of increasing the present rate of $7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.
