FOR ORDERS.

This matter is for H.E., not for me, as I remarked before in a similar case

W.S.

There is no more objection per se to a Police Officer than to any other Govt. Officer. But, as this particular appointment appears to be an unpopular one, the Collector should report if another equally good nominee might not be chosen.

A.G.H.
25.6.97

A vacancy having occurred on the Municipal Council of Srirangam on the 9th April last, by the expiry of the term of office of a nominated Councillor, the Collector of Trichinopoly recommends the appointment of C. Samba Siva Aiyar, Police Inspector of the town, for the vacancy, and states that the Superintendent of Police has no objection to his nomination. Some of the rate-payers of the town, however, have sent in a memorial strongly protesting against the appointment of the Police Inspector. They state that in no Municipality in the Presidency has a Police Inspector been appointed as a Councillor, that the present nominee has been Police Inspector of the town for nearly five years and is likely to be transferred from it before long, that it is unnecessary to mention what Police officers are c-capable of doing, what amount of influence they command in their Division and how they will use that influence, and that in a place like Srirangam, which is the hot-bed of factions and sectarian disputes, the appointment of a Police Inspector of influence as a Councillor will in all probability tend to widen the differences that already exist in the Council. They therefore request that the Collector may be directed to submit a fresh nomination. The appointment of a Police Inspector as a Municipal Councillor has, however, been considered by Government to be unobjectionable. (vide Notes and Orders in G.O. No. 637 M. dated 20th March 1897.

The following draft order is therefore submitted for approval:—

The proposed appointment will be gazetted.

However honourable & straight-forward he may be, a large proportion of the taxpayers will regard him as a person ~~able~~ capable of exercising undue influence. As a policeman also it is his duty to enforce the law including the Municipal law; & he is thus liable to be placed in an awkward position involving conflicting interests.

To
H.E.

As noted by H.W. this is for Y.E. It was sent to H.W. because apart from the particular nomination in question, the Memorial raised a general question

His Excellency, the Governor in Council
Madras.

The humble memorial presented by the undersigned rate-payers of Srirangam Municipality. Trichinopoly District

Most respectfully Sheweth.

That your Excellency's memorialists humbly beg to state that with regard to a vacancy of Councillar-ship on the Srirangam Municipal council; they are given to understand that the Collector of Trichinopoly has nominated one Sambasiva Aiyer. Police Inspector of Srirangam Division and that the memorialists strongly protest against his nomination for the following reasons namely

1. In no municipality in Madras Presidency a police Inspector has been

- appointed as Councillar.

2. The Gentleman now nominated has been the Police Inspector of this Division for nearly 5 years and it is very likely he will be transferred from this Division before long.

3. What Police officers are capable of doing need hardly be mentioned to your Excellency, nor is it necessary to say what amount of influence Police officers command in their Divisions and how this influence will be used.

4. In a place like Srirangam which is the hot bed of factions and sectarian disputes the appointment of a Police officer of influence on the Council will in all probability tend to widen the differences that already exist in the council

5. The Collector being new to the District and the Divisional officer also being very young Gentlemen it has occured that a Police Inspector should have been ~~recommended~~ recommended

That your humble Memorialists therefore earnestly pray that your Excellency may be graciously pleased to Cancel the nomination of the Sambasiva Iyer, Police Inspector as Municipal Councillar and to direct the Collector to nominate somebody else.
