not appear that the appointment of a secretary will in any way interfere with that of a vice-chairman.

2. This application seems too early as the manner in which the election of a Vice chairman should be made has not yet been prescribed by the Governor-in-Council with reference to section 14 clause 3.

3. Apart from the above objection, I would suggest that the matter might lie over until we are in a position to see and gauge the effect on the working of the municipality which may be produced by the appointment of a secretary, a proposal for which
