SUBJECT.

FOR ORDERS.

As to whether the Council's proposal that the provisions of subsections (1) & (2) of Section 282 A of the District Municipalities Act^{IV} of 1884, as amended by Act^{III} of 1897, with respect to scavengers, should be extended to Inspectors, Overseers, Maistries, Cartmen, and sweepers in the Sanitary Department and to Inspectors, Smiths, fitters, turn-cocks, and lascars in the water course establishment, may be approved. It does not appear to be necessary to apply these provisions to the Inspectors, Overseers and Maistries of the Sanitary Department or to the Inspectors and lascars of the waterworks Department.

2. Section 282 A was first introduced into the Bill to amend Act^{IV} of 1884, by the select Committee

CD

which reported thereon as follows:—

"This section is based on Section 203 of the Punjab Municipalities Act 1891. It has been represented by several of the petitioners that a strike by scavengers might have most dangerous consequences and that preventive legislation is imperative. We fully concur. It has not however been deemed necessary to follow the Punjab Act in empowering Government to place other Municipal servants in the same position "as scavengers in regard to resignation of office."

The Section as drafted by the Select Committee, consisted only of the first two clauses, which correspond with the first two clauses of Section 203 of the Punjab Municipalities Act 1891. When the Bill as revised by the Select Committee was submitted for its approval, the Government of India remarked that it would be as well to have clause (3) of the model Section of the Punjab Act added to it. The addition of clause (3) to section 282A was therefore proposed by the Honourable,

K.M.

If the servants of the Sanitary Dept proposed to be included I doubt if any grave consequences would ensue by the resignation or absence without cause of a Sanitary Inspector or Overseer; altho' the same cannot be said of cartmen, sweepers & perhaps masons. I would therefore include only these latter.

The section is highly penal; & sh^d be applied

as to the water course

lascars may certainly be included: but inspectors?
