SUBJECT.

Soliciting orders of Government as to whether the revision of House and Land taxes already taken on hand is to have effect only in the next financial year as required by the Madras District Municipalities Act Amendment Act 1897 in spite of the fact that the anticipated increase from such revision had already been taken credit for in the current year's Budget.

Sir

With reference to G. O. n° 635, dt. 20th March 1897, reviewing the Budget of this Municipality for the current financial year, I have the honor to state that the general revision of the House and Land taxes has been taken on hand from the beginning of April 1897 and the work is now in progress. At the time of the submission of the Budget it was expected that the assessment under House and Land taxes for the current year will be levied according to the revised scales, and as such an increase of Rs 1,300 was anticipated under these taxes. But since then, the Madras District Municipalities Act, Amendment Act 1897, having come into force, the anticipated increase cannot accrue if the general revision is to have effect only from the beginning of the next financial year, i.e. 1898-99 as appears necessary under section 66 (3) of the Amendment Act.

2. Considering the financial difficulties of the Municipality at present it is very undesirable that this increase in its revenue should be forgone. I have therefore the honor to solicit early orders of Government
