2. Out of five applicants for the post of secretary only two - Sambanda Mudaliar, B.A., and Venkata Ramalinga B.A., Translator, Collector's office - found a proposer and seconder. The Council selected the former.

salary of the Secretary is Rs 150.

3. The Municipality has an annual income of about Rs 56,000 as per Budget Estimate for 1897-98. The Secretary will have very large powers under the new Act. In taxing and collecting assessments, great care, discretion, patience and tact will be required. I am therefore of opinion that neither of the persons named above, nor any of the three other applicants, is fitted for this most onerous and responsible post. The first of the persons named above has no official experience and the second no experience of outdoor execution work. Under these circumstances, a Deputy Tahsildar of experience would be the best person for the post. To make it attractive to such an officer, the net pay would have to be Rs 120-10-150, rising by annual or biennial increments of Rs 10.

4. If the above views are concurred in, the State will have to lend its servant to the Municipality, which will have to pay pensionary contribution on his behalf in addition to the pay as stated at the end of the preceding para; otherwise the post of Municipal Secretary would not prove attractive to an officer of the position of Deputy Tahsildar.

2. I hardly think Rs 100 per mensem enough for a full time Secretary in this Municipality.

3. The man selected by the Municipal Council was for a short time a clerk in this office and has since been Secretary of the unsuccessful Podamir Sugar Manufacturing Company now in liquidation. I doubt his ability to work the Secretaryship satisfactorily.
