Municipal Office
Brinipatam 16 July 1897

From

Mr R. K. B. Nilachalam Pantulu Gann
Chairman M.C.
Brinipatam.

To

The Secretary
to Govt, Local & Munl Dept.
Madras.

Sir,

With reference to G.O. No 939 L dated 17th May 1897, I have the honor to inform you that in commemorating the Completion of the Sixtieth year of the reign of Her Gracious Majesty the Queen Empress of India the following actions were taken in this Municipality under my supervision.

1. On the evening of Monday the 21st June last nearly two thousand poor people were sumptuously fed near the Clock Tower.
2. On Tuesday the 22nd June last, the Municipal Hall was very nicely decorated and excellently arranged and on the same evening, after 4 o'clock the townsmen, from the different corners of the town began to gather in the Municipal Hall and at 5 p.m.
the Hall was over crowded with audience consisting of men of different creeds and colors who had all assembled there either through a feeling of curiosity or from a knock of policy or from a sense of duty. At about 5.15 scarcely had the European ladies and gentlemen of the town made their appearance and been warmly received in the Hall, when the proceedings of the day's meeting began. I addressing the audience gave a brief sketch of the reign of our Gracious Sovereign, then amidst loud cheers and applause,
I proposed Mr. W. St. B. Tydenham to the Chair

3. According

3. According to the programme Mr G. Dasannal Pantulu 1st asstt of the Local Middle School being called upon by the President read his account of Her Majesty's life in a distinct voice. Then Mr. V. Narayanamoorthy Pantulu B.A. read a paper on the advantages of British Rule in India. Afterwards Mr. V. Batchannah Pantulu read in Telugu on the advantages of Her Majesty's reign. This was soon followed by V. Narayanamoorthy Pantulu B.A. reading some beautiful Telugu verses in praise of Her Majesty.
4. The European gentry led by Mr Bowman Agent Bank of Madras sang the National Anthem.
5. Pansupari and scents were distributed among the learned audience.
6. School children were treated with sweets.
7. The President after briefly summarising the advantages of Her Majesty's reign, brought the day's proceedings to a close amidst loud cheers of rejoicing.
8. In the night, bonfires were lighted on the neighbouring hill.

I have the honor to be
Sir/
Your most obedient servant
M. L. Achalam
Chairman M.C.
