Madras.

Sir,

Referring to G.O. no 1076 on memo dated 4th May 1897 about the selection of a site for burning dead-bodies and the correspondence relating thereto, I have the honor to submit herewith copy of my letter dated 24th February 1897 to the Sanitary Commissioner, from which it will be clear, that the selection has been made after careful Consideration

Consideration. The chief consideration from a sanitary point of view as advised by him personally was that the river water at the point, where it is taken for domestic purposes should be free from contamination. With this view, he suggested, that the site may be lower down the river than the present one.

It is in accordance with this suggestion, that the present election has been made. In reply to my letter, the Sanitary Commissioner states, that his opinion of the Sanitary Board, need be obtained only if the value of the site is above 200 Rs.

2. As for the views of the Government whom the proposed change may affect, I beg to state that the the residents of the Southern half of the town are strongly against it on account of its distance and wish to continue the present practice of butting in the bed of the river. In matters of this kind, the opinions of the people can hardly be satisfactory.

3. I shall apply to the Government for the acquisition of the site, which is not expected to cost more than 150 Rs. at once unless the Government considers that the sanitary authorities should be consulted and their opinion obtained. In the opinion of the Council, the matter has been long delayed and the acquisition of the site at an early early date is necessary. Should objection be taken to it subsequently the land may be sold without loss to the Council.

I have the honor to be

THE Sanitary Commissioner

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you, that as advised by you in para 8th of your notes of the inspection of this town last August, a place lower down the river Suvraanathi and outside Municipal limits has been chosen as a Crematorium ground for the town. It is close to the river, but as there is no village for two miles on the banks of the river below the Council and as it is conveniently situated, the Council thinks that no objection to it on sanitary grounds exists. From the enclosed sketch, it will be clear that the land to be acquired is a narrow piece extending from the Vangal road to the river forming land No. 300 measuring 56 cents and is situated
