It is plain that Mr. Turrigg still considers Saumbu Chettiar should not be allowed the special exemption sought.

If H.E. wil. does not specially exempt the applicant he will if he retains his magistracy be under the law ineligible for election as a Mun. Cr.

If H.E. wil. is inclined to abide by Mr Turrigg's advice, it is sufficient to let the law take its course. That will ipso facto exclude him.

F.R. 31/7/97

In view of Mr. Turrigg's opinion, Govt should not interfere. There must be a large choice of Municipal Councillors in a large place like Madura.
