Sir,

With reference to your letter, no. 4794, dated 18th current, forwarding copy of Government Memorandum no. 1479/11.12.91.

I have the honor to state that, on the recommendation of Educational officers, Rs 500 -- were provided in the revised estimate for 1895-96 but the amount lapsed for want of suitable site for a school building. In the revised estimate the current year, Rs 600 -- were provided in consultation the Educational officers for the purchase of dilapidated building and Rs 400 -- were provided in the Budget 1897-98 for putting the building in proper order. Appeal will be made in due course, as soon as the building is the to the Director of Public Instruction for grant from Provincial Funds. I submit that I am unable, until the acquisition is completed, to address the Director as to what amount I can expect as a grant from Provincial Funds.
