The Petitioners learn that the Govt.

has issued an order to the Municipal Council directing it to file a suit in the Civil Courts in regard to the place encroached upon by Lakshminarayana and Mathukrishna Nayakan in Mathu Nayakan mudukku, Kalijapillai Street. The chairman has placed the G.O. for consideration in a meeting of the Council. If the G.O. is to be given effect to only after consideration in a meeting the Petitioners submit that there is no possibility of the suit being filed in consequence of the factions that exist in the Council, a fact which the Colli. is aware of. Nalla Perumal Pillai who has been bold enough to purchase the disputed ground is going round to every Councillor and inducing him not to favour the filing of the suit. The Petitioners are prepared to prove the encroachment by witnesses & the Municipal plan and other records. They pray that orders may issue to file the suit forthwith without bringing the matter to the consideration of the Council.
