Through the Sub-Collector Godavery.

Sir,

With reference to para 2 of G.O. No. 1752 in date 9-8-97, I have the honor to submit that the Council resolved on 19-6-97 to spend the amount of Rs 150 in feeding the poor on the jubilee days. But as there was a doubt thrown on the powers of the Council to spend the sum as resolved, I along with others called for a public meeting and collected Rs 100 and spent it in feeding the poor, while at another meeting a certain sum was resolved to be spent for the same purpose, and was so spent, thus the poor were fed by private charity on 2 consecutive days.

2. There was hardly time for me to write to Government and receive a reply before the jubilee days, the Council having passed its resolution only on 19-6-97. I referred the matter to the District Collector in time and his reply not being quite decisive, I referred the matter to Government afterwards, with the object of having a ruling on the subject for future guidance.

I have the honor to be
Sir,

Your most obedient servant
