THROUGH THE COLLECTOR OF MADRAS.

Sir,

With reference to Memorandum No 52, dated 19th January 1897, I have the honor to state that a nil statement of IV B was submitted because I anticipate no arrear demand to come off for collection in the next official year to which the statement relates.

The anticipated balance shown in — in Column 7 of Statement VI will, before the close of the current official year, be either written off as irrecoverable or — remitted owing to poverty of the defaulters after making sufficient attempts to — collect as much amount as possible of the balance shown therein.
