Misc ORDER. No. 2271 m d 18-10-97

The Government considers that for an initial salary of Rs 100 a month a suitable man cannot be procured for the office of Secretary. The salary should therefore be fixed at Rs 125, rising to Rs 150 by annual increments of Rs 5.

2 The nomination of Mr. Venkatapathi Nayudu, submitted by the municipal council, cannot be approved, as he is, in the opinion of the Government, too old to be able to discharge the duties of a Secretary efficiently. (From orders) annual increments of Rs 10, and naming M. R. Ry. Venkatapathi as the person for the place. A list showing powers to be delegated to the secretary is also submitted.

3. The average annual receipts of the municipality for the three financial years ending with 1895-96, being Rs 44,105, the maximum salary of the secretary in accordance with the scale suggested in G.O.

G.O. No. 1465 M, dated 21st June 1897, is Rs 150.

The Council now proposes to fix the starting pay of the secretary at Rs 100, and to increase it to Rs 150.
Annual increments of Rs 10, considering, however, the extensive powers that are to be delegated to the secretary, it does not appear that the initial salary proposed, viz Rs 100, will be sufficient to secure the services of a suitable person for the office. It is therefore submitted that the salary may be fixed once or all at Rs 150.

4. As regards the candidate elected by the municipal council, it is observed that he is now the Chairman of the Conjeevaram Municipality, and will cease to be so by the 30th September 1897. He is a pensioned Tahsildar and is now very nearly 60 years old, having retired after a total service of more than 37 years on a retiring pension of Rs 100 per mensem—vide G.O. No. 694. Pension, dated 5th June 1894. Article 576 of the Civil Service Regulations, which relates to the re-employment of pensioners runs as follows:—

"576. An officer who has or
"obtained a retiring pension, can-"be re-employed either in the Gen"eral Service or in a service paid for "an Incorporated Local Fund,
"except on strong public grounds
"and with the express sanction "of the Government of India "the Finance Department, or if "pensions are a Provincial charge "of the Local Government."

This rule, however, does apply to municipal service, which is paid from an excluded local fund, but following the principle of the rule, which seems to be that such people will not be fit for further active service, it does not appear to be at all desirable to sanction the appointment of Mr. R. V. Venkataswami as secretary of the Coimbatore Municipal Council. In this connection, attention is invited to the notes and orders in G.O. No 467. M, dated 17th March 1896, from which it will be seen that even when he was nominated to the Chairmanship Conjeevaram, objection was taken to the proposal on account of his age and that the nomination was accepted by Government because it was a temporary measure - vide the Honourable Sir Miss's remarks, dated 17th March 1896.

7.

What is wanted is a young and energetic man who will be able to do justice to the outdoor duties of the municipality, and if the salary of the appointment is fixed at Rs 150, as proposed in para. 3 supra, there is no doubt that a suitable man can be found for the place.

H.H.

He may say that for an initial salary of Rs 100 a suitable man cannot be found, & that the salary of Rs 150 (or Rs 125-150)?

Also that the nominee cannot be approved as he is too old.

Sir,

I respectfully beg to submit that Some days after my nomination as Secretary to Conjeevaram Municipality, I heard that a Secretary was wanted also for the Municipality of Coimbatore. I offered my services to that Council and was nominated and recommended for the post. I therefore beg that the Government may be pleased to appoint me as Secretary to the Coimbatore Municipality, if the Government is disposed to bestow on me the appointment of a Secretary, as the climate of Coimbatore will suit me much better than that of Conjeevaram.
