Madras

L.M.

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of your reminder no 943 of 15th Sept. 97 and to state that the existence of the G.O. to report the steps taken to improve the state of accounts was brought to my notice by the Head Clerk only 5 days after the reminder came as is usual with him.

2. The G.O. was received by my predecessor who appears to have not taken any steps on it, perhaps because he was obliged to resign by the Supreme indifference of the Managers and Office staff, to all orders.

3. I beg to submit that I see no other way to improve the state of accounts than by getting a better staff of clerks dismissing incompetent hands for which steps have been already taken.

I have the honour to be

Sir,

Your most Obedt Servt

Georgius

Chairman
